

WEDDINGS

Rabbi Scott Matous on Weddings Part 1 - <https://youtu.be/V62W4aU2Df4>

Rabbi Scott discusses the preparations for performing weddings with special emphasis on the interviews and meetings with the prospective bride and groom. He emphasizes really getting to know them, their likes, dislikes, and passions, and getting sense of their true compatibility as a couple before even agreeing to perform the ceremony. Also discussed are second or third marriages, couples counseling, self-examination on the part of both parties in the couple, etc.

Continuing with his detailed emphasis on pre-marital consultations with the couple, Rabbi Scott also explores situations involving mixed marriages, family involvement and beliefs, what traditions the couple wants to maintain in their ceremony (and what they do not want), and determining the charging fees.

Rev. Susanna Macomb on Weddings Part 1 - <https://youtu.be/DabgwO47gnQ>

Susanna begins by giving us a bit of her own background, including her initial reluctance to following what has proven to be her very unique calling to be. She covers a lot of ground here-from the ceremonies themselves to her views on marriage and commitment, and their true roles in a relationship.
