1-Yr Interfaith Comparative w/Mysticism Track

This program offers a dual study track that includes Comparative Religion with a Mysticism track. In the Comparative Religion course, students will learn about various religious beliefs and traditions from all over the world. The course aims to equip students with the skills to evaluate and compare different religions. By studying a range of religions, students can gain a broader understanding and appreciation of diverse spiritual perspectives, both individual and collective.

The Mysticism track is an overview of the mystical paths across religious traditions guiding students to travel on the upper mystical pathways to the Divine.

After completion of the program, students will be ordained as Interfaith Ministers and can apply for licensure in New York.

2-Yr Master of Divinity w/Mysticism Concentration Program (Accredited)

(To be eligible for enrollment in this Master's Program, the student must have completed an Interfaith Minister course from a recognized Interfaith program.)

This program provides an in-depth learning experience that prepares students to take on spiritual leadership roles with a core focus on Mysticism and its spiritual belief systems.

Upon successful completion of the program, the student will be awarded an accredited Master of Divinity Degree.

2-Yr Doctor of Divinity w/Mysticism Concentration Program (Accredited)

(To enroll in the Doctorate Program, the student must already have an Interfaith Master's of Divinity degree and be an Interfaith Minister.)

The Doctor of Divinity degree is ideal for individuals who wish to expand their understanding, enhance their leadership skills, and establish a strong network of peers. This program provides students with the necessary tools and knowledge to become spiritual leaders, with a particular emphasis on Mysticism and its spiritual principles.

Upon successful completion of the program, the student will be awarded an accredited Doctor of Divinity degree.
