What is Islam?

Islam is the world's second largest religion with a following of over one billion people called Muslims—one-fifth of humanity. The word "Islam" actually means "submission to God." Therefore, "a Muslim is one who strives to submit to God."

Imam Arif, a graduate of All Faiths Seminary, shared his personal take on Islam as a practicing Muslim who is also very involved in the Interfaith movement. As he explains, the religion of Islam is truly one of peace. In explaining his religion, and the Koran, as well as the true meaning of the all-too-often-misunderstood word Jihad, Arif stressed a very strong affinity and connection with the other two Abrahamic religions, Judaism and Christianity, and clearly expressed his hopes for real connections to be re-established among all.
