Maskil Dr. David Cycleback

#011 – Neurodiversity and Religion

#012 – The Nature and Limits of Human Knowledge

Maskil David Cycleback is Director of Center for Artifact Studies, and an internationally known scholar in cognitive science, philosophy and artifact studies. He is a member of the British Royal Institute of Philosophy, and is author of eleven peer-reviewed university textbooks including Cognitive Science of Religion and Belief Systems, Understanding Human Minds and Their Limits, Limits of Science, and Philosophy of Artificial Intelligence. He has a PhD in Religion and is ordained in interfaith.

The Rev. Br. Mark Gregory D'Alessio

#002 – All Faiths Wisdom in the Midst of Chaos

The Rev. Br. Mark Gregory D'Alessio is a Franciscan friar in the religious society of the Companions of Francis and Clare. He's also a Christian bishop and priest, spiritual director, chaplain, retreat leader, author, interspiritual pilgrim, and past President and Executive Director of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute, which draws together the inspiration of the church with the wisdom of psychological care.

A graduate of the Guild for Spiritual Guidance, founded by Henri Nouwen and Madeline L'Engle, he is now a community leader and faculty member. He's also a faculty member at All Faiths Seminary International for the training of interfaith ministers. A long-time seeker and practitioner of spiritual wisdom, he's initiated into multiple spiritual lineages, both East (Buddhist) and West (Christian); does his best to affirm the Christian Wisdom tradition within a wider inter-spiritual framework; and, looks to God's science and spiritual heroes (such as Thich Nhat Hanh and Francis and Clare of Assisi) as sources of inspiration and hope.

Currently, Bishop Mark lives on Long Island and serves as a crisis counselor and program coordinator at a shelter for men and women who are homeless and as a chaplain at a residential treatment center and school for children with learning and emotional disabilities. Moving to Long Island, he founded the Franciscan Circle, a progressive, interfaith gathering of clergy and lay people who seek to journey in mind and heart with the witness and wisdom of the Saints of Assisi, Francis and Clare. The Circle is dedicated to developing leaders for thoughtful social action and spiritual care.

As a Franciscan, he's committed to serving those who are sidelined and at risk. The Long Island Coalition for the Homeless awarded Br. Mark with their "Unsung Hero" Award last year.
